

Packers Seek Immunity For Criminal Charges

ATTORNEYS MAINTAIN FREE-DOM TESTIMONY SHOULD PROVIDE PRIVILEGE.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 26.—When the packers' trial was resumed today, Attorney John S. Miller in behalf of the packers, created a surprise by reviving the immunity plea, successfully used by the packers several years ago when they were prosecuted by the government. Counsel contended that the immunity plea applied to all the defendants who testified before the grand investigating commission. Counsel for the government contended the motion on the ground that the court had already passed on the question in ruling against the plea in abatement.

Judge Carpenter reserved decision on the motion and directed the government to proceed with the case. The government began the presentation of its case to the jury by calling the first witness to the stand, Albert H. Veeder, attorney for Swift & Co.

Attorney Veeder said he planned the organization of Swift & Co. in 1885, had been the corporation's counsel ever since and that on numerous occasions he served as a director of Swift & Co. and its subsidiary companies.

Witness said he assisted in the organization of the National Packing Company March 18, 1903 and served as a director for sixty days. Later he acted as general counsel for the corporation for a year he testified.

He said Swift, Armour & Morris owned the stock of the National Packing Company.

The government has subpoenaed 200 witnesses and is carefully guarding the list of names.

District Attorney Wilkinson will try to get a story out of the old packers pool which is said to have operated prior to the organization of the National Packing Company.

The defense may decide to admit that such a pool existed and if this course is followed the hearing may be mutually shortened.

The government will trace the history of the alleged packers combining step by step to the time covered in the indictment in an effort to prove that the Chicago packers fixed the price for meat and suppressed competition.

It may take three months or more for the prosecution to conclude its case.

MOTHER DOES RASH LOT
TRYING TO HAVE TORTURE

Somosa Falls, N. Y. Dec. 26.—Driven frantic, it is thought by her belief that she had given her two children poison in mistake for medicine, Mrs. Anna Curle wife of a prominent merchant of Waterloo sought to save them from a death of torture today by slashing their wrists with a paring knife. The distraught woman then tried to commit suicide by making ugly scratches in her own wrist. All have a chance to recover. The children, Alfred, aged 13 months and Mildred, two years old, show no effects of poison.

THANK THE PEOPLE.

I wish to thank the many friends who assisted me in getting the bicycle the Eagle gave to the carrier boy getting the most subscribers. Without their kindness I could not have secured the wheel.

CHARLES W. MORSE HAS A VERY BAD CHRISTMAS

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 26.—Charles W. Morse's second Christmas day as a ward of the national government was probably the most unpleasant if not the most wretched in the life of the one time Joe King, and General.

It was a diet dinner the prisoner had and it was eaten in the ward of the military post hospital. Morse and a dozen empty cots had been occupying since his transfer from the federal prison to the military establishment at Fort McPherson and it was eaten without relish under the observation of big attending nurses. A Broadway luncheon however would not have tempted Morse for the simple reason that he has no appetite whatever. His frequent reverses from Washington have made him nervous and despondent and within the past few days he has shown no interest in life at all apart from his wife, his daughter and sister.

Up to within the past few days Morse has shown a marvellous recuperative and fighting power. Recoveries, coming from Washington while naturally inclined to make him dejected have been borne by him and with an unusual and unexpected tranquility the prisoner all along, expressing a great confidence in coming executive clemency in some shape.

CHINESE REBELS WANT A PRESIDENT

ELECTION MAY BE PROCEEDED WITHOUT WAITING TO HEAR FROM PEKIN

Shanghai, Dec. 26.—As no reply has yet been received by Tang Shao Yi to his dispatch to Premier Yuan Shi Kai pointing out that the acceptance of the idea of a republic is the only means of securing a peaceful solution of China's troubles, the revolutionaries are demanding vigorously the immediate election of a president of the republic and asking that the government of China be proceeded with without any further notice being taken of Peking.

The conference yesterday between Dr. Sun Yat Sen, proposed president, and Wu Ting Fang, the chief of the revolutionary delegates at the peace conference, resulted in complete agreement between the two leaders and the revolutionaries are now showing a more united front than ever. Nan King is regarded by them as the most suitable place for the new republic's capital.

Among the revolutionary troops concentrated near Pu Kow to the number of nearly 15,000 there is a great agitation about the breach of the armistice of the imperial troops. The revolutionaries profess themselves selfless ready to advance against the imperial army reported to be marching from the north under the command of Chang Hui.

Premier's Decision Pleases

Premier Yuan Kai's decision to submit the proposal for the meeting of a national assembly to decide up on the future form of government in China to the consideration of the Manchus on becoming known here caused considerable satisfaction.

According to the revolutionary leaders now in Shanghai Premier Yuan Shi Kai's consent is tantamount to the admission that he himself favors a republic.

It is understood that Tang Shao Yi who is representing the imperial Yuan Shi Kai here and at length informed the revolutionary leaders at the peace conference that Yuan Shi Kai personally was in favor of a republic. Tang Shao Yi now admits that Yuan Shi Kai is in full agreement with the revolutionary plan and is only waiting to secure assurances regarding the future treatment of the imperial plan and the Manchu people and also to avoid an outbreak in Peking when the final announcement is made.

When Tang Shao Yi had fully realized the true situation in the south he telegraphed Premier Yuan Shi Kai suggesting that an election should be held leaving the decision as to the form of government to the people of China through a national convention.

The leaders of both parties believe the convention will be a purely formal affair. There can be no opinion, he no question regarding the result of such a convention which they assert should be called together within thirty days.

The political situation it is said by the revolutionary leaders was fully anticipated. Every detail of the plan is already complete for the organization of a provisional government and the eventual establishment of a stable administration.

TRIAL OF RICHESON TO START JAN. 15TH.

CHARGED WITH THE MURDER OF MISS AVIS LINNELL IN BOSTON, MASS.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 26.—The Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson it appears will go on trial January 15 for the murder of his former sweetheart, Miss Avis Linnell. Summonses were asked today for three hundred citizens of Suffolk county to serve on the special panel.

For a day or two after Richeson had mutilated himself last week there were rumors that counsel for the defense would ask for a postponement of the date of the trial and the summonses were withheld until just before the expiration of the legal time for service. No more have been made. District Attorney Pollister ordered the venire today.

It was stated that Richeson's recovery from his self-inflicted wound continued satisfactorily and that he was allowed to walk about his cell during the forenoon.

During the day a petition was filed for consideration by the incoming Legislature asking for a new law permitting private trials of cases involving the decency and morals of the community and pointing out the need of immediate action by the Legislature for the hearing of such cases in private, excluding even the press. The Legislature meets January 1 to enact such legislation.

BIRMINGHAM BOY IN ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 26.—The Christmas toll for killings and injuries was unusually heavy in this city this year. So far the violent deaths number eight and a dozen or more were seriously injured.

Mystery still surrounds the killing of T. H. Molten Jr. the twelve year old son of Representative T. H. Molten. The boy was struck in the head with a bullet that came from an unknown source when he was coming out of a theatre. It is not known whether the killing was premeditated or whether it was accidental, the latter theory being the one which the police seem to be inclined to adopt, but the officers can not locate the person who fired the shot.

BURGLAR GOT COAT AWAY

Mr. W. J. Martin whose room was entered Monday night and several articles and a large amount of money was taken by unknown burglars discovered later yesterday that a coat was also taken. No trace of the burglar has been found.

BORN AND DIED ON SAME DAY

Wichita, Kan., Dec. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey, pioneer residents of this city, who were born on the same day, seventy six years ago and who died within a period of four hours were buried here today. Both coffins were lowered in to one grave.

Bailey a veteran of the Civil War died at his home here. Death came to his wife in an insane asylum in Ottumwa, Mo. Neither knew the other was ill.

COST THE COUNTY BUT $44
SINCE THE COMMISSION
WAS FORMED

There should be no complaint from the taxpayers of Houston county about the extravagance of the Highway Commission. In fact few county organizations have done the work that this body has done at so little expense to the county. The first meeting of the commission was in April, and at that meeting $20 was the cost. July 11, another meeting of $12, and October 6 another meeting costing $16, and November 6 another meeting that cost $11, making a total expense account of $64 for the year.

Warrants have been issued for this amount to the members, but none of them have collected them. As they realize the condition the county treasury is in at the time.

Instead of criticism, the highway commission of Houston county should be commended for the work they have done. They have borrowed money of the local banks to carry on the road work and they have some good work to show for their efforts.

This condition cannot continue. Something will have to be done to finance the county, but the economy at which these men have gone about their work shows what can be done when business men take charge.

The people of this county are getting a dollars value for every dollar of the county's money that is spent. When the county puts the funds into their hands to spend on good roads the money will be spent in such a way as to get the most value.

Green Parker Robinson, in Boyson wasn't forgotten
You never know when the Russians will turn out and massacre a few hundred people.
Probably Morris will have to die or get a pardon before people will know what his troubles are Among other things, Dothan has a river to rise in wet weather and threaten to drown our people It seems like this city will have to come back home and run for some thing That chimney that sunk into the ground out of sight in Birmingham the other night didn't happen to catch Santa Claus
The jurors in Chicago, who are trying the meat packer case didn't even get a box of deviled ham from the packers as a Christmas present From the way things are looking now, we are liable to have a good deal of politics during the next few months
If all of the money spent on this Christmas was given to the poor, we wouldn't have any. Probably it was Jukes who originally spent something like this, however The country editors who have been skipping a paper and sobering up, can remember that there is another day coming, and might as well get in training.
Now your people who wanted to use your money till the first of January to get the benefit of it, will wish you had paid your taxes months ago.
The oldest inhabitant comes right out and says that the ground has a good deal of water in it.
Probably as much as has been seen in a few years.
Now you, or we rather, who have not bought a 1912 model automobile, can wait a week longer and get a 1913 model, which will have something left off, or put on to make it different from the other models The Age-Herald is about the only paper in Alabama that we have not noticed, to come out and endorse everything the executive committee did in its meeting up there the other day. The A.-H. is not bad to please.
GET READY FOR THE FIRST.
Every man should take a religion up at least once a year. Next Monday, which is the first of the year, should be a day of reckoning At that time, all should go over their business and see what it has done during these last twelve months. If they have been good, then they are something to be guided by during another year. If they have not been good ones, then their mistakes should be warnings for you, and you have other things, other cents, other ways, and you should take them People who congregate around town and who have to walk up and pay every thirty days when they do their duty should settle up. They should find out how much they are owing and then pay those pressing one and if they haven't enough money to go around put out some-more promises and can keep them But clean up the old accounts and start the new year off with a clean heart and a clean conscience, if possible

WHERE IS TOYLAND?
The Memphis Commercial Appeal asks, "Where is the workshop of Santa Claus located? Where is that mysterious toyland from whence the contents of the Christmas stocking come?"
Hush, that's a secret. You shouldn't ask. If any one knew where it was located, it would be mugged by a band of children, from any part of the world Don't you think for a minute they couldn't do it. They are thankful for the toys and all that, but they wouldn't let that shop in their order, if they knew where it was.
They would want it to the ground hoping that it was even rebuilt, that it would be operated by people who would see to it that the toys lasted till the first of January, whereas, they now give out before Christmas night. That's why you don't know where toyland is PASSING OF THE EGG NOG.
Egg nog is growing an expensive each year. In fact, it is playing out.
People who feel that they must have a nog for Christmas are put to more and more trouble about securing it each year, and they are leaving it off more and more. One, you could depend upon the hen, but she has been commercialized, like everything else. She joins the trusts of the labor unions and you can't buy her output during Christmas times unless you own railroad bonds, or Standard Oil stock
It was enough trouble to secure eggs, and now its more trouble to secure whiskey. You must go out of town for it, and let an idle feeling crowd watch you as you call for it at the express office All of this makes for the egg nog's ultimate destruction. We hardly believe a dozen families in Dothan had an egg nog this Christmas.
They had the price, most of them.
They could have bought the eggs and saved them a month or two ago, and they could have secured the booze, but it's getting too much trouble. Too much trouble for the pleasure derived
WHEN DO WE START?
There has been several people who happened to the misfortune of buying something from their residences during the last few weeks.
The practice of entering a house either day or night, and taking off valuables might be termed an epidemic in Dothan
It has been some time since the people of Dothan have had a use for their shootin' irons, but it looks like it is necessary to look them up and grease and load them, to break up the practice of burglarizing houses.
The worst feature we see about it is, that it gets everybody on their metals, and to a point to where they are just a little excited. A strange noise might be the cause of an innocent person getting shot.
In fact, most people shoot some of their friends, or members of the family, when they think they are shootin' at a burglar.
The only advice we can give along that line, is to be sure you are right, then go ahead, as the Early County News says No one should hesitate to shoot a burglar if found in his house with out a good excuse, but every one should be mighty particular that he is shooting a burglar and not a member of the family, who has got up to put the cat out, or who is coming home from the lodge.
It is time that something was done, however, to apprehend the sneak thief.
All of the house breaking that has been done, seems to have been done by amateurs, but since they make away with valuables, it really doesn't matter, whether he is a professional, or just a jack leg at the business.
Some keep a bull dog. Some keep a cow, while some keep a gun setting nearby, with some shells in the next room where they couldn't be found, while still a few others, may keep a pistol under their pillows that is an extremely dangerous practice. The burglar always looks there the first thing, to find your pocketbook and he might get the pistol and let it go off accidentally.
But something will be done. No burglar can enter about one or two houses a week in Dothan and keep it up. One tried that once and he is now doing time in the jail

January the first is important to vidends are supposed to be declar-

YOUR daily problem of what to eat is very easily solved—pass it on to us. It is not what you eat that has alone to be considered—it is the quality of what you eat. It is easy to say "Let's have some special dish for dinner," but the mere buying of the materials for that dish does not make your dinner a success. You must have the best of everything to get the fullest enjoyment from the meal.

Russians Are Showing No Mercy To Persians

PEOPLE OF PERSIA ARE STU-PIFIED AT THE WAY RUSSIA IS DOING NOW.

London Dec 25—A massacre has been going on in Resht since Saturday according to official Persian telegrams received in London.
These states that on Sunday 500 Persians were killed by Russians many of them women and children.
The people, it is said have been exhorted not to fight and not to give the slightest provocation, but the massacre still continues.

Resht is the capital of the province of Gilian and has 40,000 inhabitants. The government house has been bombarded and many government officials and police killed.
Private houses have been demolished.

According to other dispatches the Russians killed four unarmed Mohammedans in the Armenian quarter of Tabriz during the fighting in that city.

The people of Persia says one dispatch are stupefied at the attitude of Russia especially as these outrages have followed immediately upon acceptance by Persia of the second Russian ultimatum and when Persia has shown every desire and disposition to conciliate Russia and establish friendly relations.

MR. SHUSTER IS NOTIFIED

Teheran Dec 25—The cabinet notified W. Morgan Shuster, the American treasurer general of Persia Monday of his dismissal from that office. This follows the decision of the national council and the military to submit to the demands of the Russian ultimatum. The cabinet intimated to Mr. Shuster that it would communicate to him later plans for turning over his accounts to a successor.

An indignation meeting was held after announcement of Mr. Shuster's dismissal was made to protest against the so-called detat but the crowds were dispersed by the police without disorder. Further demonstrations are expected. All the opposition newspapers have been suppressed and martial law has been proclaimed.

The Russian (most) who has assumed the government at Resht reports the town quiet at the present time but looks for further outbreaks.

It is reported from Shiraz capital of the province of Fars that Persians fired on a body of Indian troops who were proceeding to quell the British consul one of the Indian soldiers being killed. There has been considerable trouble at Shiraz on account of a boycott instituted against the Indians by the Mellohs.

THE CHILD FORGOTTEN

It is Christmas time again Christmas—the day of days dear to childish anticipations and to him who loves childhood—the day when real happiness gleams and unspoiled brightness a world made some-ber by unceasing thought of self.
The last Christmas was here just a few weeks ago—was it weeks or days? We had a great time with our own children in our own homes about our own Christmas trees. We spent a great deal of money for us and incurred a great many bills but our children had everything they could think of or ask for. If so be that one is not with us now we know that no withholdings on our part dimmed the sunshine of her last Christmas. And yet—the cruelty of Christmas. The children of and books. But serve to shadow the heart of forgotten and neglected childhood and make for it a muck-cry of the Christmas tide. The wistful eyes of unremembered children at the tree the fortitude of their uncomplaint the unselfishness of their joy in the happiness of playmates laden with gifts—these deepen the sting of thoughtless cruelty and neglect. There is no music in the Christmas chimes for the child who has been forgotten. A tithe of the money wasted in the homes of plenty would make radiant a million childish hearts. Is it to be possible again this year as was perchance last year and many a year before that a single stocking hung by the hands of a child shall be empty on the Christmas morn?

Mr. Tom and Omaha McKinley left urday where they will spend the Christmas holidays.

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.

Shellhorn Ala.—In a letter from this place Mrs. Carrie May says: A short time ago I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die.
At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui and it helped me so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle I was entirely well.

I wish every lady suffering from womanly trouble would try Cardui.
It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used.

Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specially on the woman's organs and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health.

As a remedy for woman's ills it has a successful record of over 50 years.
Your druggist sells it. Please try it.

OLDEST TWIN REACH THEIR 93RD BIRTHDAY

New York Dec. 6.—Yesterday was the 93rd birthday of the oldest twins in the United States, Samuel and William Mumy of Babylon, L. I. Four generations will help to celebrate their Natal and Christmases.

Born on the property which their respective homes now occupy, the brothers have lived side by side practically throughout their long lives. Each married young and each had eight children and each has for many years been a widower. Both are prohibitionists of the most pronounced type and neither uses tobacco. With the exception of wearing eyeglasses neither twin has seriously felt the march of time.

RATION FOR THE BROOD SOW

Hog Breeder Tells How He Obtains Satisfactory Results—Feed is Increased in Winter.

The following ration for brood sows has given as good results as I could ask for says a writer to the Breeder's Gazette. While it might not prove to be the best under all conditions it has given very satisfactory results under my conditions. Four of my sows were purchased when seven months of age, then weighing 150 pounds apiece. They were kept another month then bred. Now they are 17 months old have farrowed their second litters and will weigh from 300 to 400 pounds in good, thrifty breeding condition. They have been fed somewhat near the following each day per head in addition to whatever they pick up in 16 acres of woods pasture, a portion of which contains a good stand of bluegrass and white clover. Shelled corn four pounds, shorts one pound bran, six pounds tankage one fourth pound. During the winter months when the weather is cold and the ground bare the amount of feed is increased as it is also when the litters become large enough to take all of the milk that the sow can supply. Just a few days before the sows are due to farrow I add a handful of oil meal per sow to their feed each day which relieves any tendency toward constipation and causes the pigs to arrive in good shape. Cracklings would answer the same purpose.

LUNCH COUNTER FOR CHICKS

Poultry Raiser of Many Years' Experience Describes Hopper He Finds to Be Satisfactory.

The builder of this self-regulating hopper for feeding poultry has found by many years' experience that it pays to let chickens have a constant supply of wheat and other grain, and he claims that it is economy in the long run to use a hopper that supplies feed at all times but prevents waste. The old-fashioned method of throwing out grain for the chickens to scramble for results in the overfeeding of the strong and greedy fowls, and the consequent waste of feed while on the other hand the weaker and less aggressive of the flock do not get their share.

This home-made device is designed to solve the problem and the hopper is so arranged that the chickens can eat at any time of the wheat cracked corn kafir or Egyptian corn and a dry mash composed of one part corn meal and two parts light bran well mixed. Each bin has a small hole at the bottom covered with a slide into the trough to regulate the flow of grain as it is eaten so none is lost. It contains enough to feed two or three dozen fowls for about a month and can be cheaply constructed out of packing cases with a roof of tarred paper. It should be set in the yard on two-by-four boards to prevent moisture from the ground molding the feed.

The designer of this hopper has used it for several years and states that it saves one-third of the amount of feed formerly used and increases the egg production very greatly.

Laying Hens

To make them lay, keep them comfortable and busy but don't overfeed. More pellets refuse to lay from being overfed than underfed. Our pullets get two regular feeds a day hot mash in the morning grain for supper with a scratch at noon.

An ordinance having for its object the complete eradication of the "blind tiger" in Birmingham was passed Tuesday morning by the city commission at the request of the excise commission cal provisions in it. For instance, persons not licensed, who receive a package of whiskey by mail or express is required to notify the chief of police at once, together with the circumstances.

Another is, that all persons who sell whiskey trade shall be classed as dealers and required to pay license. This applies traveling representatives of whiskey houses.
The ordinance is worded to the effect that should one part be declared unconstitutional the remainder of the bill shall not be affected.

The main provision of the ordinance are as follows:

where liquor is to be sold at wholesale or retail or any salooned club malt liquors are kept habitually are declared illegal and subject to fine and imprisonment.

be subject to arrest and punishment any person who keeps liquor stored in a warehouse for unlawful sale is also subject to punishment under the ordinance.

The possession of a United States license by any extent a dealer involved in the excise commission shall be prima facie evidence of intent to violate the law.

The possession of liquor in storerooms, warehouses or other public places shall also be taken as prima facie evidence of guilt.

All common carriers upon receipt of liquor shipments for any but a licensed dealer must acquaint the chief of police with the facts to do with all the circumstances.

A Sneaky Subject.

There is something more than a joke in the resolution that the devil's paintbrush and ragweed must go adopted by the American Hay Fever Association at its session in the White Mountains. That part of the public which has not suffered from hay fever or with its accompaniment of continuous sneezing, watery eyes dripping nose and physical depression may laugh at the idea of exterminating two weeds found in almost every part of the country, but stranger things have happened. The pollen of the ragweed the most prolific of all weeds and the most easily killed is especially irritating to those affected with asthma or hay fever and the pollen of the devil's paintbrush better known as hawkweed is almost as effective.

FORM FOR A CONCRETE TANK

One Shown in Illustration That Will Not Break and Will Come Out Easily

I have found an inside form for building concrete tanks that is a great improvement on anything that I have yet seen. You cannot possibly break it and it comes out easily 24 hours after the tank is poured, saves a writer in farm and home. The form is made

In four pieces but instead of being cut at the corners the cut is made just around the corner in each case as shown in the illustration.

The best way to make it is to build it of the required size then take a saw and cut down the sides a few inches from each corner as at A.
Make these cuts diagonal so the form will pull apart easily. Then nail a board B securely over each cut and allow the nail heads to project slightly so that they can easily be pulled with a hammer.

Good Rack for Fodder While fodder when given out of doors should be fed in feed racks and not on the ground it is imperative for the ground surrounding the racks to slope away in all directions and often it would be better still if the drainage.

Dry Shed for Sheep
Sheep should have a good dry shed to sleep and rest in during the fall of the year and preferably should be shut in to such shed over night to be sure against their not straying out during rains as they often do if they are not shut in.

Hog's Thin Covering
It should be remembered that a hog's coat of hair is not heavy nor of the kind to keep out extreme cold. Consequently it feels the change in temperature most keenly.

Kindness is Best

Barley sprouts are a good food, but very palatable.

The cottage hog like the elephantine one is a relic of the past.
Carcasses indicate low vitality or feeding qualities and sluggish-ness.

It is surprising how fast a pig can be made to grow when it is properly fed and cared for.

There is now more hog cholera in this country if reports are to be relied on, than ever before.
Lack of exercise and too much car-naceous food will necessitate an artificial market for the young porkers.

A good bear to head the herd is as to a great disadvantage if the feeding rows be not well selected.
Threshed off is a well known purge and has proved in any considerable quantity would be extremely laxative.

The humane man is comfortable in his stock. It is comfortable and they are ill at ease. It is in the condition.

Parasitic meat may be fed to all kinds of stock but owing to its large amount of oil, it must be used in very small amounts.
In giving any kind of live stock water in the winter that causes them to lose a loss. A little shivering brings a day's growth.
Barley, asbes and salt help to the hog's digestive system in poor condition and should be kept in the reach of the animals at all times.
